

Christ Church North Dublin Child Safeguarding Statement

Christ Church North Dublin operates under the auspices of Irish Church Missions, an Anglican mission organisation aligned with the Church of Ireland.

Irish Church Missions provides religious, educational and recreational activities and services to children under 18 years of age through its local churches.

Irish Church Missions acknowledges its duty of care to safeguard and promote the welfare of children and is committed to ensuring safeguarding practice that reflects statutory responsibilities, government guidance and complies with best practice.

Irish Church Missions is committed to safeguarding children by working under the guidance of the Church of Ireland's national safeguarding policy Safeguarding Trust and its associated procedures. Irish Church Missions recognises that the welfare and interests of children are paramount in all circumstances. The trustees, clergy, staff and volunteers are committed to ensuring that all children have a positive experience in a safe and child centred environment and are protected from abuse whilst participating in activities.

All churches operating under Safeguarding Trust have conducted a specific written risk assessment of any potential for harm to a child through their involvement in Church activities. The written risk assessment indicates the areas of potential harm, the likelihood of harm occurring, and lists the required policy, guidance, process and practice required to alleviate the risks. Site specific risks, which are in addition to those listed below, have been documented by the individual churches.

Risks Identified	Policies/ Procedures in Place
Risk of harm (as defined in the Children First Act 2015) of a child by a member of the clergy/staff/volunteer/peer;	The Church of Ireland has an extensive child safeguarding policy including a code of behaviour and vetting procedures which addresses these risks and are available at https://safeguarding.ireland.anglican.org/child-safeguarding-roi/
Risk of harm (as defined in the CFA 2015) to a child on outings by a member of the clergy/staff/volunteer/ stranger/peer;	The Church of Ireland child safeguarding policy addresses these risks and is available at https://safeguarding.ireland.anglican.org/roi-child-safeguarding-part-5/#12
Risk of harm of bullying of a child by a member of the clergy/staff/volunteer/ peer;	The Church of Ireland child safeguarding policy addresses these risks and is available at https://safeguarding.ireland.anglican.org/roi-child-safeguarding-part-4/
Risk of harm (as defined in the CFA 2015) of a child from unauthorised photography;	The Church of Ireland child safeguarding policy addresses these risks and is available at https://safeguarding.ireland.anglican.org/roi-child-safeguarding-part-5/#10
Risk of harm (as defined in the CFA 2015) of a child from online abuse through social media or internet access;	The Church of Ireland child safeguarding policy addresses these risks and is available at https://safeguarding.ireland.anglican.org/roi-child-safeguarding-part-5/#11 and there is further guidance available here .

Allegations made against clergy/staff/volunteer/peer	The Church of Ireland child safeguarding policy outlines the procedures for responding to allegations and these are available at https://safeguarding.ireland.anglican.org/roi-child-safeguarding-part-7/#9
--	--

The Child Safeguarding Statement has been developed in line with requirements under the Children First Act 2015, the Children First: National Guidance, and Tusla's Child Safeguarding: A Guide for Policy, Procedure and Practice.

In addition to the local church risk assessments and the above policies and procedures named, the following procedures are in place throughout Irish Church Missions churches as part of its safeguarding policies and procedures:

- Procedures for the safe recruitment of volunteers or employees to work with children in our services.
- Procedures for provision of and access to child safeguarding training, including the identification and reporting of harm.
- Procedures for reporting child protection and welfare concerns to Tusla and An Garda Síochána.
- Procedures for maintaining a list of persons in each church who are mandated persons.
- Procedure for appointing a relevant person for this child safeguarding statement.

The full Church of Ireland Child Safeguarding Policy is available on the Church of Ireland Safeguarding website at <https://safeguarding.ireland.anglican.org/>

Irish Church Missions recognises that implementation is an ongoing process and is committed to the implementation of this Child Safeguarding Statement and the procedures that support its intention to keep children safe from harm and the risk of harm. The Child Safeguarding Statement will be reviewed no later than February 2023, or as soon as practicable after there has been a material change in any matter to which the statement refers.

The Relevant Person for this Child Safeguarding Statement is:

Rev David Martin, Pastor, Christ Church North Dublin
Telephone: 01 8730829